G'day readers.

Isn't it lovely to be in warm weather after the most welcome rain, and now in a brand new year?

The place is looking green and lush - a hell of a change from the past five or six years. Our dam is overflowing and Lake Moogerah has gone from 3% to 50% (and now back to 44%). We've not seen so much water around here while we have been living here - six years. It is great to see!

Looking around now we find it hard to find a reason for selling this place and moving. But then - maybe it's the relentless recurring mowing that has now be done ever so often!!!!!!!

So gave a great 2009 and... see you soon.

Cheers,

Sue & Jaak

HALLOWEEN ~~HORROR~~ NIGHT!

On the 1st November the ghouls, goblins, witches, warlocks and other “peculiar” gathered at Elephant Rock to celebrate the one night in the year when they could emerge in their natural garb. Twenty-six of the liveliest carried on in the night enjoying the communal feast. To comply with Australian laws the drinking of human blood was prohibited so the alcohol flowed somewhat.

All participants enjoyed the trick or treat bags filled with luscious lollies (‘fingers’ and ‘ears’ and ‘teeth’ and ‘eyes’ and ‘noses’ - all obviously robbed from bodies dug up at graveyards!)

It is presumed that the schmozzle that ensued during the pumpkin rolling contest was because this activity wasn't creepy enough for the freaky participants. Even the contest to guess the weight of a pumpkin was a bit of a fizzer with wild guesses abounding. A fairy won with the only guess anywhere near the mark!

Of course Gail outdid herself with a four tiered cake (where every tier was a different cake) decorated with witches, pumpkins etc. Thanks again, Gail for this monumental effort.

Next year again?
Maybe. In the meantime, sleep well all you ghouls.

In the 60's, people took LSD to make the world weird.
Now the world is weird and people take Prozac to make it normal.

Harry & Harley-D

Harry is a man's man.
Harry loves his Harley.
Harry likes to get away, nude.
To satisfy his two passions Harry comes to Elephant Rock.
Harry rides his Harley to Elephant Rock.
Harry does not undress 'till he has arrived at Elephant Rock.
Harry does not wear any clothes 'till he's ready to leave Elephant Rock.

Harry wants to know if there are any other Harley "freaks" out there in "nude" land?

THE LOGICAL WIFE

After being married for 40 years, I took a careful look at my wife one day and said, "Honey, 40 years ago we had a cheap apartment, a cheap car, slept on a sofa bed and watched a 10-inch black and white TV, but I got to sleep every night with a hot 25-year-old gal.

Now I have a $500,000.00 home, a $45,000.00 car, nice big bed and plasma screen TV, but I'm sleeping with a 65-year-old woman. It seems to me that you're not holding up your side of things."

My wife is a very reasonable woman. She told me to go out and find a hot 25-year-old gal; and she would make sure that I would once again be living in a cheap apartment, driving a cheap car, sleeping on a sofa bed and watching a 10-inch black and white TV.

Aren't older women great? They really know how to solve a mid-life crisis!

New Year's Eve

When it was time to get into the act of this New Year's Eve you would think Elephant Rock was transformed into Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry.

There were lots of wizards waving their magic wands about as they practiced their wizardry on anyone close enough.

Even Harry Potter himself was seen wandering around the place. Hopefully he was able to pass his N.E.W.T. (Nastily Exhausting Wizarding Tests) Must admit that not only H.P. but all the wizards etc were exhausted by the New Year.

Daylight 'happy hour' on New Year's Eve with people in 'uniform', soon changed to dressup (or is that really dressdown?) when night arrived.

2009

The crowds have departed,
but some still linger.

Happy Hour on the deck , bathed in the glow of the sunset can only be described as magnificent.

Why do we want to leave this part of our personal paradise!

A cabbie picks up a Nun. She gets into the cab, and notices that the VERY handsome cab driver won't stop staring at her. She asks him why he is staring. He replies: 'I have a question to ask, but I don't want to offend you.' She answers, ' My son, you cannot offend me. When you're as old as I am and have been a nun as long as I have, you get a chance to see and hear just about everything. I'm sure that there's nothing you could say or ask that I would find offensive.'

'Well, I've always had a fantasy to have a nun kiss me.'
She responds, 'Well, let's see what we can do about that: #1, you have to be single and #2, you must be Catholic.'
The cab driver is very excited and says, 'Yes, I'm single and Catholic!'
'OK' the nun says. 'Pull into the next alley.'
The nun fulfills his fantasy with a kiss that would make a hooker blush. But when they get back on the road, the cab driver starts crying.
'My dear child,' said the nun, 'Why are you crying?'
'Forgive me but I've sinned. I lied and I must confess; I'm married and I'm Jewish.'
The nun says, 'That's OK My name is Kevin and I'm going to a Halloween party.'

*We do not stop playing because we grow old;
we grow old because we stop playing.*
